

- Possess your vessel in sanctification and honor, not in passionate lusts (1 Thessalonians 4:4-5).
- Woman should dress in modest apparel; dress that professes one's godliness (1 Timothy 2:9-10).
- Let us resolve not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother's way (Romans 14:13).

Now then, the question...

- Does the way you dress cause the opposite sex to think you are "chaste," or does it cause them to think you want to be "chased?"

Honest self-evaluation, virtue, and an unrelenting desire to be pleasing to God is all that is needed, and modesty will take care of itself.

Give it some thought.

What Money Can Buy

Money can buy a bed, but not sleep.

Money can buy books, but not brains.
 Money can buy pleasures, but not joy.
 Money can buy food, but not an appetite.
 Money can buy medicine, but not health.
 Money can buy a house, but not a home.
 Money can buy companionship, but not love.
 Money can buy a church building, but not heaven.

One can buy many things with money, but money sure does have its shortcomings. In a day and age when money seems to be the measure of a man, it would help us to measure the value of money, not by what it can buy, but by what it cannot buy. Maybe then we may more readily acknowledge the truth spoken by Jesus when he said, "A man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses" (Luke 12:15).

Remember this, "A million dollars and a bale of hay will be worth the same on the
